Early Childhood Educator Self-Evaluation Questionnaire, Short Form

Name of early childhood educator_____

Date_____

Ongoing Professional Development

- Describe your present areas of study and your inner work in relation to your task as an educator. Include a description of how you prepare for your class.

- What questions are you carrying?

- List your professional goals for the year.

- What professional development activities have you undertaken in the last three years?

Cultivating a Mood for the Young Child

- In what ways do joy, gratitude, reverence, and wonder live in you and in the environment you have created for the children?

Being Worthy of Imitation

- In what area do you have to work most consciously to be a worthy model for the children?

Life-Filled Activity as the Heart of Early Childhood Education

- How do you balance practical work, artistic, and creative play activities for the children?

Nourishing Growth and Development

- How are you working consciously to support in the children their developing senses of touch, life, movement and balance?

Creating a Circle of Warmth and Love

- In what ways are you trying to create warmth and love in the physical environment, in the daily activities of the children and for your colleagues and the parents?

The Art of Listening and the Practice of Collaboration

- How do you deal with disagreement or conflict: in the classroom with the children, with colleagues, with parents?

Final Questions

- Is there a picture or an image that captures your year, your class or this process for you?

- What do you hope to gain from this review process?

- Is there anything else that you want to share with others who will be receiving this information?